

BIG BUSINESS. bigger hearts.

Congratulations to the winners of United Way of King County's Spirit of Caring Awards

2004-2005

► Nordstrom

The Spirit of Puget Sound Award

For outstanding performance in every aspect of company campaigns and a continuing commitment to community involvement

► The Boeing Company and Employees Community Fund

► Stoel Rives LLP

Chairman's Award
For overall campaign excellence

► Costco Wholesale

► Federal Home Loan Bank

Leadership Giving
For workplaces promoting giving at $1,000 level and above

► Comcast Cable

► Microsoft Corporation

Most Significant Increase
For exceptional campaign growth

► Home Owners Club

► Medtronic Emergency Response Systems

► Puget Sound Energy

► Washington Athletic Club

Sustaining Supporter
For demonstrated pattern of consistent giving for the past five years

► First Sound Bank

Best New Campaign
For an incomparable first-year campaign

► Alice Holcomb
*Horizon House Residents

► Karla Clark
*King County Library System

► Carlene Buty and Rita Lin
*Seattle University

► Doug Baker
*United Parcel Service

Campaign Coordinator of the Year*
For extraordinary employees responsible for coordinating workplace campaigns

► Dan Brettler
*Car Toys Chairman, CEO and President

Volunteer of the Year

► Washington Mutual

Outstanding Employee Volunteer Program

* The individual campaign coordinators listed often represent a larger campaign team.

Thank you for sharing our vision of a King County in which our children enter school ready to learn, our youth graduate with hope, and each of our residents has a decent place to call home.

Thank you to our generous sponsors of the Spirit of Caring Awards presentation.

