Steve Petersen Joins First Sound Bank as Relationship Manager

SEATTLE, August 31, 2006 – Steve Petersen, formerly of Washington Mutual Bank, has joined First Sound Bank as vice president and relationship manager.

Petersen brings more than 11 years of experience in the banking and financial services industry. He has extensive experience in small business banking as well as investments and insurance, account management, consumer and mortgage lending, and retail branch management. Before joining First Sound Bank, Petersen was a vice president and financial center manager of the headquarters branch of Washington Mutual Bank, focusing on sales management and small business banking.

Petersen has served on the board of the West Seattle Family YMCA since 2003. He also is an active volunteer and fundraiser for Junior Achievement, the American Heart Association, American Cancer Society and Habitat for Humanity.
