

FACTS

WHAT DOES FIRST SOUND BANK DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and employment information
- credit history and credit scores
- income and assets

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons First Sound Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does First Sound Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For our affiliates to market to you	No	We don't share
For non-affiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions?

Call (206) 515-2004 or go to www.firstsoundbank.com

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

First Sound Bank

What we do

How does First Sound Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include procedural and computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does First Sound Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- conduct account transactions or use your debit card
- access online banking or visit our website

We also collect your personal information from other sources, such as credit bureaus, public records, and other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.

- First Sound Bank has no affiliates.

Non-affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.

- First Sound Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- First Sound Bank does not have a formal marketing agreement with any other non-affiliated financial companies.

Other Important Information

California Consumer Privacy Act "CCPA": We will limit the sharing of personal information about you to our joint marketing partners to comply with all California laws that apply to us.